
MOVING TOWARD ACTION

Redwood Coast Community Based Transportation Strategic Plan

December 2004

This document was produced by the Redwood Coast Community Transportation Coalition for the Action Network, City of Point Arena, and the Manchester-Point Arena Band of Pomo Indians.

Special thanks to the Mendocino and Sonoma Counties, Sonoma County Transit, Mendocino Transit Authority, the Gualala Municipal Advisory Council, The Sea Ranch Association, the California Department of Transportation – District 1, the Mendocino Housing Commission, the Burbank Housing Authority, and the Bureau of Indian Affairs, whose respective staffs furnished essential information that made this plan possible.

The “Moving Toward Action” Plan was funded by the California Department of Transportation’s (CalTrans) Community Based Transportation Planning Grant Program

Collaborative In-Kind Support was provided by Action Network via the Partnership for the Public’s Health, a program of the Public Health Institute, through a grant from The California Endowment and the other Coalition Members
